How risky is it?

The value of the fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

CIBC Asset Management Inc. has rated the volatility of this fund as Medium to High.

This rating is based on how much the fund's returns have changed from year to year. It does not tell you how volatile the fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

Low	Low to Medium	Medium	Medium to High	High
-----	---------------	--------	-----------------------	------

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the fund's returns, see the sections entitled "Investment Risk Classification Methodology" and "What are the Risks of Investing in the Fund?" in the fund's simplified prospectus.

A word about tax

In general, you will have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan (RRSP) or a Tax-Free Savings Account (TFSA).

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered plan, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you receive them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own, and sell Class A units of the fund. The fees and expenses - including any commissions - can vary among classes of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

1. SALES CHARGES

There is an initial sales charge when you buy units of the fund. Effective May 13, 2022, the deferred sales charge ("DSC") purchase options were closed to new purchases.

Sales charge option	What you pay		How it works
	in per cent (%)	in dollars ($)
Initial sales charge Front-end load option	0.0% to 5.0% of the amount you buy	$0 to $50 on every $1,000 you buy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You and your representative decide on the rate. • The initial sales charge is deducted from the amount you buy. It goes to your representative's firm as a commission.

The deferred sales charge is a set rate. It is calculated based on the purchase date and cost of your units. It is deducted from the amount you sell and paid to CIBC Asset Management Inc. You can sell up to 10% of your units each year without paying a deferred sales charge. This free redemption entitlement is based on 10% of the number of deferred sales charge units you held on December 31 of the preceding year, if any, plus 10% of the number of deferred sales charge units purchased in the current year. You may redeem units of the fund to purchase certain classes or series of units of another Fund at any time without paying a deferred sales charge. When you sell units of the subsequent fund, the deferred sales charge will be based on the original purchase date and original cost of units before the switch.

More about the trailing commission

The trailing commission is an ongoing commission. It is paid for as long as you own the fund. It is for the services and advice that your representative and their firm provide to you.

CIBC Asset Management Inc. pays the trailing commission to your representative's firm. It is paid from the fund's management fee and is based on the value of your investment. The rate depends on the sales charge option you choose.
