How risky is it?

The value of the fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

CIBC Asset Management Inc. has rated the volatility of this fund as Low.

This rating is based on how much the fund's returns have changed from year to year. It does not tell you how volatile the fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the fund's returns, see the sections entitled "Investment Risk Classification Methodology" and "What are the Risks of Investing in the Fund?" in the fund's simplified prospectus.

No guarantees

Like most mutual funds, this fund does not have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

How has the fund performed?

This section tells you how Class O units of the fund have performed over the past 10 years. Returns are after expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the fund's returns.

YEAR-BY-YEAR RETURNS

This chart would generally show how Class O units of the fund performed in each of the past 10 calendar years. However, year-by-year returns for Class O units of the fund have not been presented for the year 2013 because there were no Class O units outstanding at any time during that calendar year. Year-by-year returns for Class O units of the fund have not been presented for 2014 and 2015 because Class O units were not outstanding for a full calendar year. Class O units have not dropped in value in any of the 7 years shown. The range of returns and change from year to year can help you assess how risky the fund has been in the past. It does not tell you how the fund will perform in the future.

BEST AND WORST 3-MONTH RETURNS

This table would generally show the best and worst return for Class O units of the fund in a 3-month period over the past 10 calendar years. However, the best and worst 3-month returns are only being presented for for the years 2016 to 2022 since Class O units were not outstanding for a full calendar year in 2014 or 2015 and no units were outstanding at any time during the 2013 calendar year. The best and worst 3-month returns could be higher or lower in the future. Consider how much of a loss you could afford to take in a short period of time.

	Return	3 months ending	If you invested $1,000 at the beginning of the period
Best return	1.02%	December 31, 2022	Your investment would rise to $1,010
Worst return	0.06%	April 30, 2021	Your investment would rise to $1,001

AVERAGE RETURN

The annual compound return of Class O units of the fund has not been presented because Class O units have not been outstanding continuously over the past 10 years.

Who is this fund for?

Investors who:

- want regular income;
- want to preserve their capital; and
- are looking for a liquid, short-term investment.

A word about tax

In general, you will have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan (RRSP) or a Tax-Free Savings Account (TFSA).

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered plan, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you receive them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own, and sell Class O units of the fund. The fees and expenses - including any commissions - can vary among classes of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

1. SALES CHARGES

There are no sales charges payable when you buy, switch, or sell Class O units of the fund.

2. FUND EXPENSES

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the fund's returns.

As at February 28, 2023, the expenses for Class O units of the fund were 0.00% of its value. This equals $0.00 for every $1,000 invested.

More about the trailing commission

No trailing commission is paid in respect of Class O units.

3. OTHER FEES

You may have to pay other fees when you buy, hold, sell, switch, or convert units of the fund.

Fee	What you pay
Management fee	Class O units are available to investors who have entered into, or whose representative's firm or discretionary manager has entered into, a Class O unit agreement with CIBC Asset Management Inc. The management fee is negotiated with and paid by, or as directed by, Class O unitholders, or representative firms and discretionary managers on behalf of Class O unitholders. Such management fee will not exceed the annual management fee rate for Class F units of the fund (0.50%).
Switch fee	If you sell units of the fund to buy units of another fund managed by us or our affiliates, you may pay a switch fee of up to 2% of the value of units you switch. This fee goes to your representative's firm.
Conversion fee	If you convert units of the fund to another class of units of the same fund, you may pay a conversion fee of up to 2% of the value of units you convert. This fee goes to your representative's firm.

What if I change my mind?

Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to:

- withdraw from an agreement to buy mutual funds within two business days after you receive a simplified prospectus or Fund Facts document, or
- cancel your purchase within 48 hours after you receive confirmation of the purchase.

In some provinces and territories, you also have the right to cancel a purchase, or in some jurisdictions, claim damages, if the simplified prospectus, Fund Facts document, or financial statements contain a misrepresentation. You must act within the time limit set by the securities law in your province or territory.

For more information, see the securities law of your province or territory or ask a lawyer.
